What's New at Shadow Mountain Country Club

DUES INCREASE TO MEET RISING COSTS

To meet steadily rising costs of operation which have occurred over the last five years, the Board of Directors has voted an increase in Resident membership dues beginning April 1, 1967. The cost of living index has increased in all businesses including your Club.

* * *

In addition, plans are being evaluated for the additional facilities of Sauna Baths, Gymnasium and added recreational facilities such as "Bowling on the Green", Croquet and Badminton.

* * *

Added benefits to members is the new policy of the Club in which members and their guests are entitled to a 20% discount on rooms with outside Clubs paying the regular rates.

* * *

It was also planned to charge $4.00 per year for the Club publication "Sun Spots", which is a normal procedure at most Clubs, however with the increase in dues, the Sun Spots will be continued without charge to the members.

It is also contemplated that additional rooms and apartments will be built for the members' use and benefit.

JOHN GREGORY AT HELM

Rudy Richter, SMCC's genial General Manager, has said goodbye to the many friends he has made over the past year and is leaving for Europe where he has an interest in a resort hotel.

Mr. Monte Wenck, our energetic President, stated that he is not replacing Rudy, but has retained the services of Mr. John Gregory of John Gregory Associates, Management Consultants, to handle the operations of the Club and the expansion program that is being planned.

Among the number of items being considered, are additional luxurious rooms, and sauna and health baths.

John Gregory, who is considered an expert in club management, stated that he is more than delighted with the wonderful reception that he has received here and that he hopes it may be possible to make his home in Palm Desert as he has so many friends and acquaintances here through his former association as Chief of Protocol for the U. S. Air Force.

Mr. Gregory further states that he is delighted to work with Mr. Monte Wenck as he considers him a man of great vision and energy.

SHADOW MOUNTAIN COUNTRY CLUB AFFILIATES

With JANE PELGRAM

Easter Week came on like "Boss City" at your Shadow Mt. Club where the poolside and bistro set dug in pretty good for sunning, volley ball, making friends, swimming and setting up a collective sigh as the girls walked by . . . son Dave and his good group of eleven guests deserted the old Brubaker homestead in Palm Springs for SMCCing where four full houses from SC were represented and on-campus fraternity rivalry forgotten as the week wore on . . .

The Clubs gear-group favorites, those grotty Humans, are still in Los Angeles filming upcoming TV shows, so Hannibal's Animals, better billed as "700 POUNDS OF MUSIC", pulled a switch on the man who came to dinner bit. They came to the Brunch to entertain, reved that up to Farenheit 451 and stayed to play a dinner dance here for a bunch of swingers who dug 'em so much they hired them on the spot! Before the dance the Animals, count 'em, all six, strolled to the poolside and burned up the amps for about an hour and a half of big beat. But EVERYBODY turned looner!

While all this was going on before Easter, the juniors of the PS stuck with tennis and another tourney, this one for strictly 12 and under. Mike Burcham and Rob Pelgram tied for first, then Mike pulled it out of the fire 7-5, 7-5 . . . a two set playoff.

SUMMER CAMP

If somebody gets on the horn with an invitation to a groovey film, it's got to be for the re-run of Manny Vezie's Gold Arrow Camp action, and THIS action on land and water makes for about as boss a summer as most of you teenagers will ever see. So come.

Notice the new snack shop at the pool? So now it's like wow! All you really need is some kids, a good transistor, and it's instant parties!!! But be sure and check your Club calendar for the sam on what the Club arranges to make it downtown around here, too!

SHADOW MOUNTAIN PALETTE CLUB, INC. INSTALLATION NIGHT !

By Irene Fenton

The Nominating Committee of S.M. Palette Club has made their report and it is with pleasure we announce our new slate.

LOUETHEL HOUSTON ..... PRESIDENT
JESSE LEISHMAN ..... FIRST VICE PRESIDENT
COL. JAMES WESTERFIELD ..... SECOND VICE PRESIDENT
ROBERT DAVENPORT ..... TREASURER
DOROTHY GLASGOW ..... RECORDING SECRETARY
LUELLA PACKER ..... CORRESPONDING SECRETARY

Thursday evening, May 25, our installation took place with the Rev. Robert G. Blacka presiding; soloist for the evening was Mrs. Gloria Blacka. The year's activties were shown with colored slides by Mr. Chet Fenton.

Our Past President, Col. James Westerfield and the Board of Directors would like the S.M.C.C. President Monte Wenck and former Club Manager Rudy Richter to know how much we have appreciated their many kindnesses, and particulraly the Galleria.

We feel this year our programs have been of the best possible quality, by many of the most noted artists in the country. To quote our President . . . "There is no substitute for quality, in all that we do and all that we say, let quality be our inspiration and our guide."

Our last field trip of the season will be at the estate of Angela and Chet Spencer in the High Desert, Yucca Valley, May 2, for all our artist friends.

MAY IS THE MONTH OF VERBENA THE DESERT IS ALIVE WITH COLOR, DON'T MISS IT. HAVE FUN!

NEW PRESIDENT — Louethel (Lou) Huston at the Artist's Ball and exhibit with her painting of her daughter, Laura Jane (Mrs. Garry) Short, is the newly elected Shadow Mountain Palette Club President.

SMCC WOMEN'S BRIDGE CLUB

SMCC Women's Bridge Club

A coridal invitation is extended to all SMCC women members who would enjoy joining Monday and Wednesday afternoon PROGRESSIVE CONTRACT BRIDGE parties.

"We have fun and urge you card-playing women members to join us. We arrive around noon for luncheon, and play afterwards."

Co-chairmen for the "bridgers" are Verna Olmsted and Hazel Thronson.

Last month's winners were: Mesdames Ben F. Heflinger, Robert Hunter, Raymond Wehle, Fred Nassour, Esther Ryan, Karl Miller, Park Hancher, Robert McComas, Telford Thronson, and Al Johnston.

ARTISTS' BALL — Dr. J. C. Tyler of Indio is winner of painting "Morning In the Black Forest" by Irene Fenton who was General Chairman of very successful and colorful Artists' Exhibit and Ball. In background are Lorna Patrick and "MC" Kickapoo Logan.

GATES OF THE DESERT tournament is still under way, with the finals to be played too late to report in this publication. However, we can report that Betty Warren and Georgia Waterman have reached the quarter finals . . . and in the consolation round Liz Moldstad, Lorry Rowe, Florence Cowan and Jane Richey are still in there . . . pitching! This, the major handicap tournament of the season, is sponsored by Bob Kretschmar and Larry White . . . owners of the Gates of the Desert Lodge in Palm Desert. The finals of this tournament were played on the same day as the finals of the men's championship tourney . . . followed by cocktails and dinner at the SMCC. That report will be in our next SUN SPOTS.

WOMEN'S SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA GOLF ASSOCIATION

On May 9th. and 10th. the annual DESERT EVENT sponsored by the Women's Southern California Golf Association will be played at four desert clubs. Shadow Mountain Golf Club was a host club last year and will be again in 1968. 400 women are guests of the desert for this fine event.

Edith Nylund, who had a hole in one previously, presided over the punch bowl. (Hers was on #5). Another hole-in-one was accomplished on this day (on hole #1) by Mary Baker. She will preside over another punch bowl later.

NET RAMBLINGS

By George F. Anderson

An enthusiastic gallery of tennis players and fans were on hand Sunday, April 16, to witness the singles finals for the Club Championship.

In the men's division, JAY PAULSON, high ranking Junior player, defeated Clif Myll, last year's runner-up, 6-2, 6-2. The match was replete with long and interesting rallies. Clif put up a magnificent battle, but youth prevailed.

In the semi-finals, Paulson outgunned Bob McInerney 6-2, 6-2, while Myll measured Ross Patten 6-4, 6-4.

JUNE GIBBS, the club's most improved player in the past several years, retained the women's singles crown by a 6-4, 6-2 victory over Joyce Myll. June had previously out dueled Ginny Smith in the semi-finals, 6-3, 6-4, while Joyce overwhelmed Kay Hollenbeck, 6-0, 6-0.

Jane Pelgram umpired the women's finals, with George Anderson handling the men's event, assisted by Tom Angle and Ross Patten.

Tournament details were handled by Joyce Myll in the absence of Magda Rurac, who left for her summer berth at the Shelter Rock Tennis Club, Manhasset, Long Island, New York.
